

01-06-2009 – MINUTES – T.U. MEMBERSHIP MEETING – Gold Rush Chapter,
Dahlonega, Georgia

Chapter president Deborah Scott presided over the membership meeting held at Camp Glisson. The minutes from the previous month's meeting were distributed among the membership for review and were adopted by a vote of approval. Raymond DeBlois presented the treasurer's report and advised that the chapter account balance is $10,860.17. New attendees were recognized, Dream Vacation ticket progress was reviewed: unsold tickets or the proceeds from their sale are due no later than the March membership meeting.

A reminder was made to sign-in for attendance & to wear name tags. Members were encouraged to keep their T.U. national dues current. The T.U. Georgia Council quarterly meeting will be hosted by Gold Rush T.U., Saturday, March 7th @ 9:00 a.m. Make plans to attend and to help with hosting. Fly tiers are asked to prepare 3 to 6 flies and turn in by the March 2nd chapter meeting; flies may also be purchased by individuals and donated.

Stover Creek workdays are October 17th & 24th; also May 16th was mentioned as a possible workday, for the stream restoration project. Workdays are continuing for Yahoola Trails, the 2nd Saturday of each month, beginning @ 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. Bring gloves, garden tools, water, lunch, etc. The annual fly fishing show will be held @ Gwinnett Center Jan. 24 & 25; Rabun Rendezvous will be Saturday the 24th.

The program for the evening, Fishing the Delayed Harvest of the Chatooga, was presented by Duane Stalnaker. Assisting with the program was his wife Julie Stalnaker. She was representing the Georgia Women Fly Fishers. The Women Fly Fishers are hosting their annual fundraiser on Saturday 21st February, @ 6:30 p.m., @ Sweetwater Brewery, Atlanta. Tickets are $20 advance; $25 at the door.
