The minutes from previous meeting prepared by Richard Trotter were read and approved and Richard was thanked for a great job on his tenor as Secretary.

Treasure Gloria Pattillo stated that are treasury is healthy with $ 4,326.00

A membership report by Deborah Scott that we have 122 members on the rolls but that 24 of those members are delinquents.
Deborah also mentioned that Pat Pattillo a life member and has been a member of Gold Rush since 1974 WOW!!!!

Pat Pattillo reviewed past programs and is open to any suggestions form the general membership if there are programs that they would like to be presented, that he will search out those topics.

Sherman gave an outline what he hopes the mentoring program will bring to the club: that when a club member has need he will see that need is fulfilled by searching out other club members to fill that need from casting to tying or just learning where to go fishing .
Sherman also introduced the “ THE APPILATION SLAM “ program: any club member that can catch a brook trout, a rainbow trout and a brown trout all three in one day will be awarded this certificate of merit.

Reminder of fly tying class to be held on the second Thursday of the month at the American Legion hall , the nest class will be on the 12 th of the month time 4:00 PM till 9;PM

Reminder that the Gold Rush Challenge is a go for the 21 st of November and that any and all members should attend as this will be an event to benefit the club and also put Gold Rush TU on the map as a top class fishing event Fred is to do a radio interview on South 107 to air on the Sat before the Challenge ( 14 th )

There will be no meeting in Dec., but there will be a Xmas gathering at Deborah Scotts residence Sat. Dec. 12 th , this date to be confirmed and when invitations go out a RSVP is requested.

The club is looking for candidates for 2010 Trout Camp ( June 6 th thru the 12 th ) candidates to be ages 12 to 15 years old male or female at a cost of $450.00 the first 50 paid by their parents if possible.

The program was presented by Gary Lacey of “ Lacey and Johnson Sporting Designs, LLC” Gary chronicled the history of fly reels and showed the replicas they produce

Meeting was adjourned at approximately 8:30 PM
